Malaga. La Casarosa gallery has launched its second season with the exhibition 'Conjectures' by young Cordoba-born sculptor Luis Alhama, who now lives and works in Berlin.

Luis Alhama's work is designed to captivate all who see it. This inevitable attraction could be because it awakens their curiosity, their imagination, their memories or, maybe, because it awakens their nightmares.

Through this open dialogue with the spectator the artist poses a series of questions that distress him about the contemporary world.

His work lies in the art of the strange, the sinister; in the art of uncertainty under the influence of contemporary sculptors like
